Socrates programme: including Turkey as a beneficiary country

OBJECTIVE: to enable Turkey to take part in the SOCRATES programme. CONTENT: amendment of European Parliament and Council Decision No 819/95 relating to the SOCRATES programme in order to include Turkey among the beneficiary countries. Turkey's participation will enable Turkish and European students to establish closer links and will help to strengthen democracy and respect for human rights in that country. Turkey's financial contribution to SOCRATES will be made either by means of a direct contribution or by using funds earmarked for EC-Turkey financial cooperation (or a combination of the two).?

Socrates programme: including Turkey as a beneficiary country

The Parliament approved the Commission's proposal subject to some amendments. Parliament's opinion was drafted by Ms. Renate Heinisch, (EPP, Germany). The Decision concerns full or partial participation by Turkey in the Socrates programme in its current form, to the extent permitted by negotiations, as well as the launch of preparatory measures or measures to increase awareness with a view to such participation or to that provided for under the future framework programme (2000-2004) at the earliest possible date. There is an amendment which states that the purpose of such participation is to enable genuine exchanges to take place between young people from both sides and the staff accompanying them, while respecting their linguistic, educational and cultural diversity, as provided for in Article 126(1) of the Treaty, and bearing in mind the need to ensure fair representation of minorities. The Parliament also approved an amendment requiring it to be kept informed about the various measures taken to implement this Decision.?

Socrates programme: including Turkey as a beneficiary country

The Council's common position takes up the majority of the Parliament's amendments adopted in its first reading. Of the 6 amendments, the Council decided to accept amendments 1-4 and 6 in their entirety. The Council was able to accept amendment 5 in part, but agreed to change the reference to minorities.?

Socrates programme: including Turkey as a beneficiary country

The Commission agrees with the Council's common position, including the amendment with respect to the rights of minorities. In fact, the Commission is of the opinion that the wording proposed by the European Parliament could give the impression that specific quotas were a possibility.?

Socrates programme: including Turkey as a beneficiary country

The Parliament approved its second reading under the co-decision procedure without amendment (the rapporteur was Mr. Giuseppe GARGANI, EPP, I).?

Socrates programme: including Turkey as a beneficiary country

PURPOSE : to allow Turkey to participate in the Socrates programme. COMMUNITY MEASURE : Decision 68/2000/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council amending the basic Decision relating to the Socrates programme so as to include Turkey among the beneficiary countries. CONTENT : this Decision amends Decision 819/95/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council relating to the Socrates programme in order to open the programme up to the participation of Turkey. In addition, this Decision concerns full or partial participation at the earliest possible date by Turkey in the Socrates programme in its current form, to the extent permitted by negotiations, as well as the launch of preparatory measures or measures to increase awareness with a view to such participation or to that provided for under the future framework programme (2000 to 2004). The purpose of the participation of Turkey in this programme is to enable genuine exchanges to take place between young people from both sides and the staff accompanying them, while respecting their linguistic, educational and cultural diversity . The European Parliament shall be kept informed of the various measures taken to implement this Decision. ENTRY INTO FORCE : 14.01.2000.?
