Regulation 2012/1168
OJ L 344 14.12.2012, p. 0001 Summary

Protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community: investigations

PURPOSE: to amend Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community.

PROPOSED ACT: Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council.

BACKGROUND: in Case C-249/10 P - Brosmann and others v. Council (Judgement of 2 February 2012), the European Court of Justice ruled that the sampling technique provided for in Article 17 of Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community⁴ may not be applied for the purposes of the determination of claims of market economy treatment to be made under Article 2(7)(c) of that Regulation.

The ruling by the European Court of Justice on the application of Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 would require that the Commission examine all applications for market economy treatment filed by cooperating producers who are not part of the sample, irrespective of the number of producers. However, such a practice would impose a disproportionate administrative burden on the investigating authorities of the Union. Therefore, it is appropriate to amend Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009.

IMPACT ASSESSMENT: no impact assessment was carried out.

LEGAL BASIS: Article 207(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU).

CONTENT: in the light of the Courts judgement, the Commission proposes to amend Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009, in particular with regard to the time limit of three months for the Commission to decide on the applications for market economy treatment.

In addition, for reasons of legal certainty, it is considered appropriate to introduce a provision clarifying that the decision to limit the investigation to a reasonable number of producers by using samples on the basis of Article 17 of Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 also applies to the parties subject to a market economy treatment examination, in accordance with Article 2(7)(b) and (c).

Lastly, the proposal clarifies that the anti-dumping duty to be applied to imports from producers, which have made themselves known in accordance with Article 17 but were not included in the examination, shall not exceed the weighted average margin of dumping established for the parties in the sample, irrespective of whether the normal value established for such parties was determined on the basis of Articles 2(1) to 2(6) or Article 2(7)(a).

BUDGETARY IMPLICATION: this proposal does not have any implications for the EU budget.

Protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community:

investigations

The Committee on International Trade adopted the report by Vital MOREIRA (S&D, PT) on the proposal for a regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council amending Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community.

The parliamentary committee recommends that the European Parliament adopts its position at first reading, under the ordinary legislative procedure, taking over the Commission proposal.

Protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community: investigations

The European Parliament adopted by 652 votes to 13 with 11 abstentions a legislative resolution on the proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council amending Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community.

Parliament adopted its position on first reading following the ordinary legislative procedure. The amendment adopted in plenary is the result of an agreement negotiated between Parliament and Council. The main amendment is as follows:

Determination of dumping: with regard to certain provisions, a determination whether the producer meets the relevant criteria shall be made within normally seven months but not later than within eight months of the initiation of the investigation (rather than within three months of the initiation of the investigation).

Protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community: investigations

PURPOSE: to amend Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community.

LEGISLATIVE ACT: Regulation (EU) No 1168/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council amending Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community.

CONTENT: the Council adopted an amending regulation on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community following an agreement at first reading with the European Parliament.

To recall, in Case C-249/10 P Brosmann and others v. Council (Judgment of 2 February 2012), the Court of Justice of the European Union ruled that the sampling technique provided for in Article 17 of Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 on protection against dumped imports from countries not members of the European Community may not be applied for the purposes of the determination of claims of market economy treatment to be made under that Regulation.

The ruling by the Court of Justice of the European Union on the application of Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 would require that the Commission examine all applications for market economy treatment filed by cooperating producers who are not part of the sample, irrespective of the number of producers. However, such a practice would impose a disproportionate administrative burden on the investigating authorities of the Union.

Therefore, taking into account the Courts ruling and for reasons of legal certainty, Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 has been amended as follows:

- introducing a provision clarifying that the decision to limit the investigation to a reasonable number of parties by using samples on the basis of Article 17 of Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 also applies to the parties subject to an examination in accordance with subparagraphs (b) and (c) of Article 2(7) of that Regulation. Consequently, it is also appropriate to clarify that a determination under subparagraph (c) of Article 2(7) of that Regulation should not be made for exporting producers that are not part of the sample, unless such producers request and obtain individual examination in accordance with Article 17(3) thereof;
- clarifying that the anti-dumping duty to be applied to imports from exporters or producers which have made themselves known in accordance with Article 17 of Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009 but were not included in the examination is not to exceed the weighted average margin of dumping established for the parties in the sample, irrespective of whether the normal value established for such parties was determined on the basis of Article 2(1) to (6) or subparagraph (a) of Article 2(7) of that Regulation.

Lastly, the Regulation extends from three to seven months the time limit for the Commission to decide on the applications for market economy treatment.

ENTRY INTO FORCE: 15/12/2012. This Regulation shall apply to all new and to all pending investigations from this date.
