Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument: financing of the European Social Fund to increase allocations to France, Italy and Spain for the year 2013

PURPOSE: to mobilise the Flexibility Instrument to complement the financing of the European Social Fund in 2013.

PROPOSED ACT: Decision of the European Parliament and of the Council.

CONTENT: the Interinstitutional Agreement of 17 May 2006 allows for the mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument to allow the financing of clearly identified expenditure which could not be financed within the limits of the ceilings available for one or more headings of the multiannual financial framework.

In accordance with point 27 of the Interinstitutional Agreement, and after having examined all possibilities for re-allocating appropriations under heading 1b, the Commission proposes to mobilise the flexibility instrument to complement the financing in the general budget of the European Union for the financial year 2013, beyond the ceiling of heading 1b, of EUR 134 049 037 towards the financing of the European Social Fund to increase the allocations to France, Italy and Spain for the year 2013 by a total amount of EUR 150 000 000.

Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument: financing of the European Social Fund to increase allocations to France, Italy and Spain for the year 2013

The Committee on Budgets adopted the report by Reimer BÖGE (EPP, DE) on the proposal for a decision of the European Parliament and of the Council on the Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument.

Members recalled that the proposal for the Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument aims to provide EUR 134 049 037 in commitment appropriations towards the financing of the European Social Fund, in the general budget of the Union for 2013, beyond the ceiling of heading 1b. The objective is to increase the allocations to France, Italy and Spain for the year 2013 by a total amount of EUR 150 000 000.

Members called on the European Parliament to approve the Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument for the amount required as well as the annexed decision proposal.

NON-LEGISLATIVE ACT: Decision 2014/94/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on the mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument.

CONTENT: the Interinstitutional Agreement of 17 May 2006 allows for the mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument to allow the financing of clearly identified expenditure which could not be financed within the limits of the ceilings available for one or more headings of the multiannual financial framework.

In accordance with point 27 of the Interinstitutional Agreement, and after having examined all possibilities for re-allocating appropriations under heading 1b, the Decision is intended to mobilise the flexibility instrument to complement the financing in the general budget of the European Union for the financial year 2013, beyond the ceiling of heading 1b, of EUR 134 049 037 towards the financing of the European Social Fund to increase the allocations to France, Italy and Spain for the year 2013 by a total amount of EUR 150 000 000.

This amount will complement the financing of the ESF under Heading 1.

Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument: financing of the European Social Fund to increase allocations to France, Italy and Spain for the year 2013

The European Parliament adopted by 585 votes to 73, with 33 abstentions, a resolution on the proposal for a decision of the European Parliament and of the Council on the Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument.

Parliament stated that after having examined all possibilities for reallocating commitment appropriations under heading 1b, it appears necessary to mobilise the Flexibility Instrument to complement the financing in the general budget of the European Union for the financial year 2013, beyond the ceiling of heading 1b, of EUR 134 049 037 towards the financing of the European Social Fund (ESF) to increase the allocations to France, Italy and Spain for the year 2013 by a total amount of EUR 150 million.

In so doing, the European Parliament approved the Mobilisation of the Flexibility Instrument for the amount required as well as the annexed decision proposal.
