Activities of the ACP-EU Joint Assembly in 1994

The committee adopted the report on the work of the ACP/EU joint assembly. According to the report, the ACP-EU joint assembly provided constructive support for north/south cooperation at a time when the European Union and the ACP countries were endeavouring to strengthen and consolidate relations between them with a view to a mid-term revision of the Lomé IV convention. The report highlights the usefulness of the assembly's work in this context, especially in supporting democratisation in the ACP countries and the social consequences of structural adjustment programmes and debt reduction projects.
